

why is it important to be honest? think of a time it was hard to be honest, but you did it anyway. what did you learn?

what is one thing you would like to ask of each family member?